"It relates the history of the steer - dareing family, beginning with the origin of the steer name. The first known direct ancestor is William Steer (1645-1724) and the book contains the story of his children's immigration to Pennsylvania. George Washington Steer, the Aujnor's grandfather, left his home in Pennsylvania as a teenager. His next known whereabouts are in Missouri in 1887 when he married Mindora Kelly, but he had changed his name to Charles Henry Dareing. The book also contains stories about some of his escapades during those unknown years. A chapter is devoted to each of the children of Charles and Mindora. Also included are the memories of some of their grandchildren."
